The Olds Election

Both Premier Manning and Liberal Leader Harper Prowse expressed gratification at the results of the Olds byelection. The Social Credit candidate was elected but the Liberal vote was much higher in proportion than in the last provincial election.

Actually, it's anybody's guess as to which way the wind is blowing, with only one bye-election to act as a weather-cock. It seems to us that under Mr. Prowse's leadership the Liberals are fast becoming the recognized second party in the province. The party has a five-member Alberta representation in the Ottawa house, a big improvement over the previous general election. It is expected the next provincial election will be held in 1952 and a continuation of this trend to Liberalism in Alberta may upset a few political apple-carts.

Report to the People

The provincial government is to be commended on using the press of the province to report the work being done by the various governments departments. We have advocated for some years a program such as this, designed to keep the people of Alberta informed on just what their representatives are doing.

This policy has been in effect in British Columbia for a number of years. It is only right that the people should be told not only what government policies are at election time, but how those policies are working out in actual practice.

The first of these reports is entitled "Government Business Is Your Business—Without Health There Is No Happiness."

Flying the Wounded Home

Canadian Army units embarking for action in Korea may see plenty of it. The Chinese Communists can apparently supply an unending stream of fighting men for months or years to come, backed by Communist ideology, Russian arms and the age-old Chinese ability to propagate faster than famine, war or pestilence can destroy. It has been estimated that if an army marching out of China were to pass a given point, four abreast, at quick-march pace, day and night, without stopping to eat or sleep, they would never all pass that point. With a population of 400,000,000 enough children are born, and enough reach military age to keep the supply of soldiers inexhaustible.

How good they are as fighting men is another story. We don't know the answer to that, not yet. How many would die, unattended on the battle field, would in a callous manner of speaking, seem inconsequential. But how many of our Canadian boys are brought back to health after being wounded or taken sick is a matter of vital importance to us.

No doubt ararngements have already been made to fly wounded Canadian soldiers back home. The United States Army reports that the men wounded in Korea, who are being returned to this continent for hospitalization "are coming back in better shape than in World War II."

The U.S. Air Force reports that in August 1,378 patients were flown from Japan and Korea to this country. These included battle casualties as well as other injured and ill persons. C-97's that are being used for transport carry fifty patients and attendant nurses and, because of greater flying range, take a shorter route across the Pacific. On the average, the big planes take thirty-seven hours to reach the west coast.

The airplane has become a mighty weapon of warfare but in this instance, at least, it serves the cause of humanity. It would be impossible to imagine the reaction of soldiers a generation ago to the suggestion that, in the future, men wounded in battle would be carried through the air for thousands of miles for hospitalization.

Will Laws Cure Alcoholics?

By T. W. Pue

Those who read my article in this column last week will know what type of drinker is termed an alcoholic.

Once a man becomes an alcoholic, he remains one for the rest of his life whether or not he ever quits drinking. For an abstaining alcoholic is always susceptible to the disease and must remain forever on his guard.

Yes, alcoholics are actually sick people. Alcoholism is a disease. For other diseases we prescribe medical treatment. For alcoholism we legally have only ineffective laws designed to prevent the patient from getting the stuff or to throw him into a prison cell as a common rogue.

T. W. Pue

Interdicts

By getting a legal order to restrain barkeepers from serving known alcoholics whom they recognize, wives and mothers hope to keep their men sober. Actually, this is a good law—as far as it goes. There are also laws against non-interdicts buying liquor on behalf of those on the "Indian list" but if an alcoholic wants to get liquor there are usually enough of his so-called "friends" unkind enough to break the law for him.

Criminals

Then, too, there is nothing to stop an interdict from driving to the next town where he is not known and buying all the beer he can consume. Hotel men are supposed to refuse to serve a patron who is showing signs of inebriation ,but it's pretty hard often to tell when an alcoholic is drunk or sober.

Actually the regulations against supplying alcoholics with alcohol are quite ineffective, because when a drunkard wants to drink he'll get the stuff by fair means or foul.

So, because our patient gets more liquor to satisfy his craving, because he is sick and unable to drink like a normal, well person, we arrest him, put him behind bars for a short time, and then release him again to crave, drink, get drunk and be arrested again in an unending circle of human despair.

I do believe we need much better enforcement of the laws governing liquor control. But all such laws being restrictive are purely negative in their value.

What the alcoholic needs is not less liquor because someone tells him he shouldn't have it, but none at all, because he himself realizes that he is an alcoholic, and cannot, under any circumstances, take another drink.

Next week I will discuss a group of alcoholics who have been able to remedy their condition by totally abstaining—because each has the firm conviction and will do it, with the help of a Higher Power than themselves.

Scriptural Meditations

By Ainsley Blair

"If we would but think of God as often as we have evidence of his care for us, we should keep him ever in our thoughts, and should delight to talk of him and to praise him. We talk of temporal things because we have an interest in them. We talk of our friends because we love them; our joys and our sorrows are bound up with them. Yet we have infinitely greater reason to love God than to love our earthly friends; and it should be the most natural thing in the world to make him first in all our thoughts, to talk of his goodness and tell of his power.

SOURCE OF U.S. DOLLARS

Since the European Recovery Program was originated in 1948 the United States has advanced $603,-100,000 with which to purchase agrictultural produce in Canada.

WHEAT CONSUMPTION

Domestic disappearance of wheat in Canada in the 1950-51 crop year will reach 155,000,000 bushels, an increase of 23,000,000 over the previous crop year, according to an estimate made by the Dominion bureau of statistics. Increased animal feeding will account for the larger disappearance according to the bureau.

Wheat can now be processed so that it cooks, smells, tates and looks (except for color) like rice. The Australian Wheat Board is reported to be undertaking to build a processing plant that will turn out about 60,000 tons of processed wheat a month. The idea is to sell this product to rice eating nations in the Far East which are not able to get enough rice to feed their population.

Maybe thats why I'm not married, because the girls are afraid of me.

New County Act Will Affect Educational, Municipal Affairs

By W. R. Sinclair

(Condensed from the Albreta School Trustee)

The County Act came into force on July 1, 1950. When implemented its provisions will have a great effect upon the local administration of eductation, municipal hospitals, and municipal affairs generally.

The new legislation is designed to consolodate the local administration of municipal affairs, municipal hospitals and education within the confines of an area to be known as a county into the hands of a new group, the county council, and its committees.

It provides for the formation of not more than four counties. The Lieutenant Governor in Council is to form a county only after having received a resolution to that effect from the council of a municipality or from the board of a school division which forms a major part of the area to be designated as a county. Four years after the county has been formed, a plebiscite is to be taken among its electors to ascertain whether or not they are in favor of its continuation. The system is therefore to be in the nature of an experiment.

The order establishing a county is to become effective on January 1st in the year following its publication.

The question arises as to the representation on the school committee of the county council of such a district. The position is not clear. The School Act provides that where a town or village district has more than eight classrooms operated for resident pupils, and is included in a division by agreement, the Minister of Education may constitute such a district a separate sub-division, and provide for the election of another member to the divisional board to represent it. Similarly where a town district has been included, whose resident pupils exceed 40 per cent of the division's total enrollment The School Act allows the Minister to provide for the election of two additional members of the divisional board to represent the sub-division.

The County Act says that where all or any part of a division included in a county contains a district which includes a town or village which has been constituted a separate sub-division pursuant to The School Act, that the Board of that district may each year nominate an elector of the town or village who shall be appointed by the county council to the school committee.

COAL INDUSTRY LOOKS AHEAD

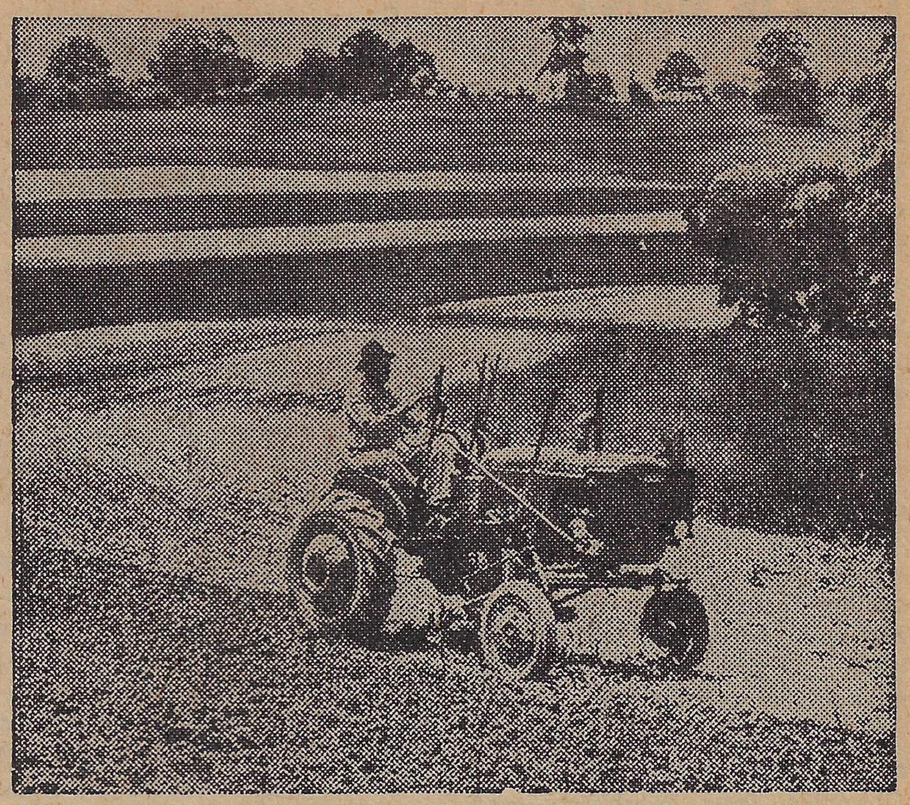

Coal fields of Alberta, which contain more than half of the coal reserves of Canada, must find new markets if the industry is to stay healthy.

This was the theme of coal delegates at the recent annual western meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Hon. N. Tanner, Alberta's minister of mines and minerals, said that increased frieght rates would be a most serious development from the industry's point of view. According to present indications, the rate per ton for coal moving from Alberta to Ontario is due to go up $2.35 next March and the same amount again the following March.

The industry supports 10,000 people directly and 75,000 indirectly.

ALBERTA FARMERS TRY NEW METHOD

New method of strip farming, designed to hold needed moisture on the land, will be tried on many Alberta farms next year. Here, a grass runway is kept across lowest cultivated strips, while corn and hay are planted in alternate 65-foot strips.

Wingate Raider Arrives To Settle In Alberta

Harry Lineker, a member of the famed Wingate Raiders who saw action in Burma during the late war, has arrived from England to settle in Edmonton. He is staying with H. Lame, of 9542 98 st.

Serving with the Grenadier Guards from 1939, Mr. Lineker transferred in 1943 to the Commandoes and was sent to the east to teach guerrila tactics to the Chinese.

This did not materialize and his company was sent to Burma, where their work was demolition behind enemy lines and hit and run raids. Their only contact with the Allies was by portable wireless.

Three months after they had been behind enemy lines the Japanese increased their vigilance to such an extent that it was impossible to get supplies dropped to them by airplane. By this time they were also unable to get back through enemy lipes.

They existed on berries, monkey meat, and whatever else they were able to get from the land.

A chance, unknown entry into China allowed them to escape to Allied lines. They travelled in a 3,000-mile loop, finally entering Northern Burma and reaching the British at Fort Hurst. Of the 42 who had gone behind the Japanese line only eight arrived at Fort Hurst.

Mr. Lineker stated that he found the farms between Calgary and Edmonton "very interesting."

Former Resident Visits In McRae

McRAE—The big news of this week is the arrival of the former storekeeper and postmaster, Dan Soprovich, for a short visit in the district. A warm welcome was extended to Dan during his stay here and those members of the Social Committee who accompanied him to the station at Spedden, report a joyful send-off.

Mrs. Gerald Rocheleau, teacher of Tompkins Lake School is driving a new Mercury streamliner, replacing the jeep that used to occupy their front yard. Gerald has gone north and will not be giving picture shows during the cold winter months.

Some McRae district residents attended the sale at Sugden of Chipiuk's farm machinery and other effects. The cold raw day kept many away from the sale, consequently, the small crowd attending, only fair to medium prices were realized for the goods offered for sale. Chipiuk's are moving to Edmonton, where Mr. Chipiuk will enter a business with his brother-in-law.

Mr. Bobby Henderson reports their baby in the hospital at Lac La Biche is making rapid progress. A premature baby weighing only four ounces at birth is gaining an ounce a day in the hospital incubator. We wish them well and hope that Bill Karpyshyn, who operated the ambulance that took the mother out, recovers from the excitement and responsibility of his experience. People who live long distances from hospital and other town conveniences are more aware of their good neighbors, than those poor people who live next door to the doctor.

George Bobocel has moved his family onto the old McRae farm, for the convenience of his children attending school.

Threshing has finally been finished in the McRae district, but much remains on the fields in the Sugden district.

The Municipal District road, from our improvement section south of McRae to Shedden is in terrible condition, with heavy ruts that make driving extremely dangeous at ony speed above 20 M. P. H. This is a main highway and deserves better consideration from the Smoky Lake Councillor than this road has been getting. Some effort has been made to coordinate the maintenance of this road, of the Government and the Smoky Lake Division, but has failed to get results. The Permanent Road Committee of the people will be called again shortly to bring these matters up for discussion.

IODE MEETS IN M'MURRAY

McMURRAY.— The regular meeting of the IODE was held at the home of Mrs. L. K. Millar, on Nov. 8th. Mrs. Hill, the Regent asked to have the flag brought forward, and the meeting was opened by the saying of the Chapter prayer.

It was voted to donate $10.00 to the Queen's Carpet Fund. Some of the members had been canvassing for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, and had collected $78.60. The meeting was then closed by singing God Save the King. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. Hardman.

ATMORE NEWS NOTES

The Rhein and Matheson outfit is now doing some road work in Green Pine East.

Voting for the Atmore bar room will be held some time in December.

Miss Helen Dakin, former resident of Atmore, was crowned queen at the bazaar held at Plamondon on Sunday, Nov. 5.

The farmers are trying to steal a few hours every day in combining their late crops.

Mr. Rhein, senior, has gone back to Evansburg after having spent three weeks with his son Bob and family.

Mr. Lloyd Dakin has purchased a 1948 Chevrolet car. The Dakins will be starting on the first leg of their trip to California on Wednesday. They will spend a while with Mrs. Dakins aunt in Spokane, Washington.

The council of this organization is comprised of the following:

President, Walter J. Ilnicki.

Secretary-Treasurer, George Dowkhaluk.

Board of directors: Mr. Alex Blonky, Mr. Alex Moroz, Mr. John Pullishy, Mr. Mike Ilnicki and Mr. Robert Korycinski.

Old Time Dance to Be Held

Because of the fact that most of the residents of this community came to Canada during the "thirties," the council of the Blue Jay Community Center has decided to hold a "hard time" dance, in memory of the days when a man was lucky to get two meals a day and a whole suit of clothes to wear. So, let's see all old timers and young people, too, of this community and of all the other neighboring communities in attendance on Saturday, Dec. 2. The dance begins at 8:00 p.m. sharp and ends at 12:00 midnight. Let's have all of you folks there so we can see how you really looked and dressed during that great depression of the "thirties." Worthwhile prizes will be offered for the best costumes.

Redwater Curlers Study Blueprints for Future

Three executives of the active Redwater Curling Association are seen here studying blueprints of the $20,000 curling rink slated to open in the near future. They are, left to right, Jack Haylock, Charlie Barnes and Len Donaldson. Latest venture was a radio broadcast show in support of the association when the program 'Calgary Power Discovers' was transcribed on the stage of the Deric theatre last Saturday night.

Plans Nearing Completion For Skating Rink Opening Event

Redwater Skating Rink Association met in the skating rink dressing-room on Wednesday evening.

Mr. K. Oakley in his president's report, announced the rest of the lights and boards that were required have been donated to complete this community project.

Flint Rig offered free labour for 2 or 3 days whenever such help would be needed, and Imperial Club has offered to assume costs of installing sewage pipes in lavatories.

A letter was presented from the Imperial Club regarding the use of the dressing room. Another letter is to be written to the Athletic Association, thanking them for their donation of $200.

Mr. Oakley was appointed to take charge of the opening night of the skating rink. Circulars will be passed through the mail to every householder and notices placed in conspicuous places in the village advising of the opening night.

T. S. Lambert of Redwater, was hired as caretaker of the skating rink. Mr. Lambert's application was the only one in the hands of Mr. Swaka, the association's secretary. Mr. Lambert agreed to accept this position as caretaker of the skating rink and dressing room at a salary of $150 per month. His duties commenced November 16.

Foresters Dance Held In Reopened Mess Deck Cabaret

After being closed for about three months, the Redwater Mess Deck Cabaret opened to a dance sponsored by the Independent Order of Foresters, which was a great success, when the members and their city members held their first dance.

Tickets were being sold in advance and many residents of Redwater and vicinity, who are not Foresters, supported the event, since the proceeds are to be spent in providing Christmas treats for the children. It was estimated that over 200 persons attended. The I. O. F. orchestra, directed by Shorty Payne, supplied the music.

Miss Bernice Foss won the dog that was raffled.

Mr. J. Lukes, president of the I. O. F., said that about $200 was raised, with $128 taken in at the door during the dance plus the tickets that were sold in advance.

Frosted Flax and Ergot Poisonous

This article is to point out that definite dangers from poisoning are associated with the feeding of frosted flax plants and ergot-infested grains or roughages to livestock.

Frosted Flax. Chemical analyses on frosted flax, recently carried out at the Dominion Experimental Station, Swift Current, indicate that death may result from the consumption by farm animals of even fairly small quantities of frosted flax plants.

The best precaution farmers can take is not to turn livestock into fields of immature, unharvested frozen flax. For protection against livestock poisoning, and also to prevent the over-wintering of certain destructive flax crop diseases, such as rust and pasmo, unharvested flax should be completely plowed under, or otherwise destroyed, this fall. Farmers who have harvested frosted flax for feed this year would be well advised to send a sample, consisting of about one pound of material, to the Dominion Experimental Station, Swift Current, for analyses. This is indeed a valuable service to the flax growers of Western Canada.

Ergot. The ergot disease of grain crops, particularly of rye, barley and wheat, is well-known to most farmers. It is caused by a fungus (mold). The large, purplish to black, horn-like bodies (ergots), which develop in the heads of diseased plants and are quite conspicuous in the threshed grain, are poisonous to man and livestock. Every care should be taken, therefore, to remove the ergotized kernels from grain that is to be used for human or livestock consumption. Any grain feed which contains 0.1% or more of ergot is considered a source of danger to livestock. Moreover, as a very small concentration of ergot in feed may cause abortion, ergotized material should be excluded completely from the rations of mares, cows, sows and ewes. Don't take a chance! Recognize the dangers that are associated with the feeding of ergot and frosted flax plants to livestock.

The Allis-Chalmers Model "B" Tractor

The Model "B" will profitably displace from two to five horses. It will do all the jobs that horses are used for, and many power jobs that horses cannot do, such as belt and power take-off work. It not only does the work of five horses, but does it faster, better and more economically. So easy is it to handle that a teen-age boy can operate it and do as much work as a husky, full grown man. It is indeed an ideal all purpose tractor for family operated farms.

Frank Simons, chief carpenter of the Thorhild School Division has just about completed the one room annex to Abee School.

Bill Mikety, a well known farmer here, has just completed threshing at home. He said that his crop was poor this year.

Smoky Lake ATA Holds Regular Meet

SMOKY LAKE. — The Smoky Lake ATA held their regular meeting at Warspite high school with 22 members present. John Shubert of Warspite was chairman. Harry Kostash asked for volunteers to help with the testing program that will be distributed to all the grades in the division. A delicious lunch prepared by the ladies of Warspite concluded the evening. The next meeting will be held at Smoky Lake on Thursday, Dec. 9.

A busy time was had by all householders on Tuesday, Hallowe'en night. Hundreds of children dressed as witches, goblins and what-not were welcomed with Hallowe'en songs and in return were given Hallowe'en apples and candy. It was amusing to watch the little tots in costume, handicapped with their excess load of apples.

All-in-all, no damage was noticed. Everything was done in good, clean fun. Five of the Junior classroom held their Hallowe'en parties in their schools.

The Hallowe'en dance at the Ortona hall to the music of John Barabash of Edmonton, was enjoyed by a big crowd on Tuesday night, Oct. 31. Costuming was considered to be the best that Smoky Lake ever witnessed.

First prize for fancy costuming was awarded to Walter Melnyk and Ed Hansen, both of Warspite.

Second prize went to Mary Kotyk and (Mrs.) Jean Cebuliak of Smoky Lake as Old-Timers. Third prize went to the Bride and Groom.

A birthday party in honor of Judy Romanchuk who was four years old on Nov. 1, was celebrated with 10 little guests.

Mrs. Steve Romanchuk has resumed her work as assistant secretary for the Smoky Lake school division, on Nov. 1. She had been given sick leave for four months.

The Smoky Lake Parents'-Teachers' Association will be held on Nov. 8 at the school. Miss Hobiak's grade 2 and 3 pupils will present a little program for entertainment. Everyone is welcome to attend. Lunch will be served.

Geo. Holisky, Hi-School, has returned from Banff where he attended lectures sponsored by the Junior Wheat Pool.

Miss Nellie Romanchuk, the Home Economist teacher and her students held a tea in school last Thursday afternoon. Home cooking and candy for sale, fish pond and fortune telling were held to raise money. The proceeds of the teas being held by this class are being used to furnish the Home Economics class room.

Edmonton Boys Eye Allen Cup Honors

By AL CONNOR

Despite a rash of injuries that have tagged upwards of half a dozen players, the Edmonton Flyers are setting the pace in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League as hockey steals the sport spotlight on the prairies.

Rough and tumble contests have highlighted the 25 fixtures since the season opened a few weeks ago.

Edmonton Flyers have garnered 20 points to date, Calgary Stampeders 12 points, Saskatoon Quakers 10 points, and cellar-dwelling Regina Capitols eight points.

In the Western loop point derby Flyer's Colin Kilburn is showing the way, according to official statistics released this week from the Regina office of president Al Pickard.

Kilburn, who topped the point race last season, has 22 points including nine goals at this date.

In second spot is linemate Ray Barry, with 19, while the third member of Fyer's Dynamite line injured Steve Witiuk, holds down third place.

Larry Zeidel, erstwhile Saskatoon Quaker, leads in the penalty department. He's spent 64 minutes in the penalty box, including a term for misconduct.

Flyers are hungry for an Allen Cup this year. Last one they garnered was in the 47-48 season, and Currie's men are out to prove that Edmonton can do it again before the current season's out.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Girl Friend Angry After Five Years Friendship

DEAR LOUISA:—I have been going with a girl about five years but we have never been anything to each other but good friends.

We are neighbors and I never thought of her in any other way but found her to be good company.

A new girl has come to town and I am very much attracted to her but this old friend of mine gets very angry when I talk about having a date with this newcomer. She acts like I belong to her but I have never had any idea of marrying her, as I am not in love with her.

I don't know what to do. I hate to lose my good friend, but I would like to date this other girl.

TWENTY-TWO

Answer:

It seems rather selfish to take five years of a girls time when you are not in love with her. The girl herself is really at fault for letting you monopolize her time when you let her know you had no serious intentions.

If you are sure you are not in love with No. 1 you had better break off at once or the next thing you know you will be married to a girl you had no idea of asking to become your wife. Go on and ask the new girl for a date. If No. 1 is wise, she will let you go gracefully. You may find out, when you are allowed to roam, that you really are in love with your first friend.

LOUISA

CERTAINLY . . . Sir!

A highly respected old time resident of Alberta, Mrs. H. G. Dunfield, passed away in a Calgary nursing home Nov. 2, at the age of 80 years.

Elizabeth Keyes Dunfield was born at Admaston, Ontario, May 19, 1870. She married Hugh George Dunfield, Oct. 18, 1893, and came west with her husband to Okotoks in 1905. Then after three years sojourn at Dewinton, they moved to the Delia district in 1909, where they resided until 1936. Since then they have made their home in Edmonton, and with their son at Gibbons.

Mrs. Dunfield was a member of the Presbyterian church since childhood and a charter member of the first missionary society formed in Delia. She has always been deeply interested in all church and community affairs.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. deLeeuw from the Delia United Church at 2:00 p.m. Nov. 4.

The chior was in attendance and the hymns sung were "The Sands of Time Are Sinking," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Mrs. Whitman and Mrs. Eberley rendered a special duet.

Pallbearers were: John Carter, Wm. Sinclair, Hawk Eilertson, Charles Greer, D. H. Campbell, A. C. McCully.
